February 2011

FROM THE PASTOR....

Many years ago, I had my first, and what could have been my last, experience with Indian cuisine. Marsha and I were on our honeymoon in London and decided to try an Indian restaurant. I remember being hungry and began eating as if there was no tomorrow. After a few bites, I was beginning to think there would be "no tomorrow". I got up and just about made the 50-yard dash to the nearest hospital. From then on, I had respect for Indian cuisine. A similar experience happened with a skunk, actually twice, but there is no happy ending to that story.

For sure, it took many years before I developed an appreciation for Indian food. Now, I like to say "eating Indian cuisine is like having a symphony on one's palate". There are tastes I never knew I had.

Over the years, I have come to learn that some of the best things in life are the result of an acquired taste. Their appreciation requires exposure and knowledge, which can lead to true delight.

Moving from cuisine to music, I must tell you how delighted I am when Marsha and I visit Puerto Rico where our younger son lives, teaches in the music conservatory and plays in the orchestra. What strikes me is how people "dress up" when they attend an orchestral event. It is obvious it is a special night. What also impresses me is the number of children, teenagers and college students who attend these concerts. When I attend a concert in New York City, my gray hair blends in with an apparent "cloud" of gray in the audience, with an occasional burst of reflected light here and there. In San Juan, my gray hair stands out in the crowd.

Enquiring on why this is the case, I learned that music appreciation is deeply rooted in the Latin culture. Venezuela has one of the best music programs in the world. In Puerto Rico, the people support the musical arts through their government and their taxes. Rich and poor are proud of the tradition and appreciative of this common musical heritage, both classical and ethnic. Through support for the arts, tickets for young people are very inexpensive and the youth of that country take advantage of the opportunity. Finland also has a wonderful music program. The result of this is that Finland has one of the best educational systems in the world. The money spent has turned out to be an investment that has "paid off". Education requires discipline and music can only be learned through disciplined learning. Plus, the benefit of these programs raises the quality of life for the people of these countries in ways that are not seen in other places, including the USA. Here, the classical arts are enjoyed mostly by those who can afford them with the vast majority of people having little, if any, lasting exposure. This is a different kind of deficit but a deficit, nonetheless.

Where I am headed here is to make this final point that the season of Epiphany exposes us to the meaning of Christmas way beyond its twelve days of celebration. In essence, the purpose of Epiphany, as a liturgical season, is to help us grow into an appreciation of what God has done in the incarnation of Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. Each Sunday's gospel theme is designed for us to acquire a deeper appreciation for our faith in Jesus as Son of God, born of Mary. One line of a favorite hymns says it best for me, "This is he, behold the man". Each Sunday's gospel reading will draw us more deeply into an appreciation of the Word made flesh.

- + A star in the east and a baptism in the Jordan
- + A call from God that changes a man once named Simon
- + A Word from Jesus that calls fisher folk to a new life
- + Lives marked by challenges, yet lives deeply blessed
- + Salt and light, delight and illumination
- + Love that compels action
- + Righteousness that confounds
- + Faith overcoming worry, freeing us to live a new day
- + Delight in the presence: "Lord, it is good that we are here."

To be sure, this Epiphany season is one of the longest seasons we have had in some time. Rarely is it eight weeks in length. This makes it a special time to have acquired a special taste in the Word, spoken, broken, sipped and splashed. With this holy intentional acquisition, together we can only sing, "Oh taste and see that the Lord is good" and on the last Sunday of Epiphany, the Transfiguration, "How good Lord to be here. Your glory fills the night."

In Epiphany,

Pastor John Havrilla

FROM THE VICAR...

"Day by day, Day by day, Oh Dear Lord, three things I pray: to see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, follow thee more nearly, day by day." Most of you will recognize these words from the musical Godspell.

We are one month into the New Year; New Year's resolutions have been made, new beginnings, we have put an end to the old year and brought in the New Year with new life, new ideas and a fresh start.

Just a few weeks ago, the Word was made flesh, new life. We celebrated the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We gathered as a community of faith to welcome the newborn baby; some came from near, others from far. We all came together, as one, to welcome him; his light surpasses all human understanding. What a wonderful celebration it was, with the Word made flesh present among us.

On the first Sunday of Christmas, our College and Career Group gathered in celebration by reuniting with one another. The pancake brunch celebration was an opportunity for Good Shepherd's current college students to be able to reunite with their peers and share each other's stories, career paths and, most of all, their college experiences.

We had a wonderful turnout. It was special for the young people to be able to catch up with one another, and on top of that, share a wonderful meal. It was discovered that each student possesses an important skill—that is, each of them is handy in the kitchen! Some cooked and others supervised, but the most important thing was that everyone had fun, coming "home" and catching up with old friends.

We look forward to our next College and Career Group gathering. During this month, we here at Good Shepherd will be creating a Facebook page, so that we may stay in communication with our college students. It is nice to get away from home, but there comes a time when we miss home, and home surely misses us.

What happens now? All the celebrations are over. Another Christmas is in the past; the New Year came and it's already a month old.

So what happens now?

We live our lives Day by Day and we ask the Lord to show us the way, the way towards that new life, that new life that we know as The Way, The Truth and The Life.

Oh Lord, as each of us stop and reflect during the calm after the storm of all the celebrations, let us pray to see you more clearly through your son Jesus Christ, love you more dearly, through your son Jesus Christ, and follow you more nearly, through your son Jesus Christ.

Lord, we trust you are with each of us, near and far, young and old, school and work, rich and poor, day and night, day by day.

Jonathan Recabarren, Vicar

THANK YOU

A special thank you to Lynn Merring for planning and hosting our annual Christmas party and to all who made our Advent and Christmas at Good Shepherd so meaningful and beautiful.

STEWARDSHIP

Have you caught up on your 2010 commitment? Thank you!

Have you made your 2011 commitment? Thank you!

BEHIND THE SCENES

There are many people in Good Shepherd who work behind the scenes...few know how often and how long they work, and what they do.

Ruth Clarkston is one of those people. For over twenty years she has come into the office during the week and has done data entry on all the contributions from the previous Sunday. She is a terrific bookkeeper and a perfectionist, and despite some mix-ups and poor handwriting, has made sure everything worked out to the penny.

She is now leaving the position in order to spend more time at home with Fred. We will miss her quiet smile and work ethic.

So, a big hand to Ruth for a job well done.

A BIG THANK YOU!

We want to thank Gloria Murphy for the years she has worked in the Good Shepherd Church office. Her dedication, pleasant demeanor, and organizational talents were a great addition to our staff and to those with whom she came in contact. Gloria commuted by bus three days a week, one of which was volunteer, and like the postal motto, neither rain, nor sleet, nor snow kept her from her job. She will continue to work as a volunteer, which is a definite benefit to the office.

So thanks, Gloria, and enjoy that extra cup of coffee at home on those freezing mornings.

GOOD SHEPHERD'S 110TH ANNIVERSARY

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY

The Wednesday Evening Bible Study of Paul's letter to the Romans, resumes for six weeks starting January 26th thru March 2nd at 7:30, in Pastor's office. Join us if you have never come before. This course is for beginners and those who celebrate being a "new-born babe" in the Word. No special knowledge needed. Come one, come all...you will be blessed for sure.

Pastor John and Vicar Jonathan

WELCA

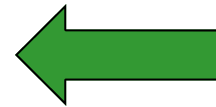

Hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas and a happy, healthy New Year to all. WELCA will hold its first meeting of 2011 on Tuesday, Feb 1st, at 1:30 PM in the parlor. Pastor Havrilla will be our guest speaker and as usual, will present a very interesting program. Also, please bring your health kits for Lutheran World Relief if you haven't already done so. Please join us. If you have any questions or need a ride, call Barbara Bow at 845-215-5866 or Mary Iseman at 845-623-7638.

ON SUPER BOWL SUNDAY

LET'S HAVE A

Starting January 23rd, we will be collecting cans of soup to fight hunger in our community. With all the snacking and feasting we do watching football, let us share with others, and fill the shelves of People to People. Soup can be dropped off in the entrance of the education building.

COMMUNITY CAREER NETWORK

The Community Career Network (formerly the Community Network for Career Development) is sponsoring a free seminar on Wednesday, Jan. 26 from 7:00 to 9:00 PM at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Pearl River. Renee Sussman Toplansky, Certified Leadership, Business & Executive Coach will discuss current trends in the Interview Process. Renee brings years of experience to help you through the ins and outs of the Interview Process. Please join us for an interactive discussion!

Future monthly meetings will feature speakers with expertise in:

- ~ Electronic Networking/Social Media
- ~ The Importance of Effective Networking
- ~ Personal Branding
- ~ Starting Your Own Business

The Community Career Network is a place to share career ideas, expand your professional network and tap into resources of talent and support within our local community. It is sponsored by a volunteer group of community members and is free and open to all. For further information, contact any one of the following people:

Son Quest Rainforest VBS

Save the Date

August 1-5, 2011

9am until noon

Planning is underway for this summer's Vacation Bible School program, based on John 3:16

“For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

Open to children from age 4 (as of 9/1) through grade 3. Program includes Bible stories, crafts, music, snacks and games, plus entertaining skits and a mission project.

Watch for more complete information in the March Voice and registration forms in the April and May Voice and on the church website.

Many volunteers are needed to be leaders and helpers. Mature teens and tweens are welcome to help, as well. If you would be willing to volunteer, please contact Vicar Jonathan.

CREATIVE PLAY NEWS

Although February is a short month, Creative Play is packed with activities to get us through this snowy, cold month. The dentist will visit in the beginning of February to share with the children healthy eating and how to take care of our teeth with proper brushing. We also hope the Groundhog doesn't see his shadow, which means an early spring, and after all the snow we have had in January, that sounds great. The children will also be celebrating Chinese New Year, the Year of the Rabbit, and chase away all those bad spirits with their dragon masks as they parade through the halls of Creative Play. After a short break for President's Day we will be looking forward to spring.

Registration for all new students took place on Monday, January 31, 2011, for the new school year. Please call the school (735-2737) if you are interested in a spot for September, as there are limited openings. Also, if you have a child who will be two by December 1, 2011, you might be interested in our Mommy & Me classes. Please call the school in March for information and to sign up for the September classes.

Council Capsule

Your Church Council met on December 15th. Among the topics discussed were the following:

Treasurer's Report: With our fiscal year having ended on November 30th, we achieved a balanced budget for 2010! Thank you to all those members who have faithfully supported God's work, in and through Good Shepherd, during the year, with their service and financial support.

Good Shepherd 110th Anniversary: The anniversary will take place on Sunday, February 20, 2011. We will commemorate the anniversary during the morning worship service and then celebrate at some point thereafter. A couple of possibilities are being looked into. One would be to invite our former vicars back to Good Shepherd, to share in this anniversary celebration with the congregation.

Election of Church Council Officers: On January 2nd, a special meeting held every year at this time, will take place at which the 2011 officers of the Council will be elected by the Council members. The candidates are those whose names were presented to the congregation at the recently held Annual Meeting. Included on the slate, and the position involved, are: President – Don Widmayer, Vice President – Eileen Kennedy, Treasurer – Bob Bergman, Financial Secretary – Werner Boecker, Secretary – Kim Arcidiacono.

Youth Fund Raiser: The Good Shepherd Senior Youth Chapel Choir is planning a fund raiser in January, by either holding a performance or recording and selling CDs. The funds gathered will go to a friend of one of the group members. The friend is high on the list for a heart transplant.

Community Career Network (CCN) Update: Good Shepherd, along with other local houses of worship, continues to be supportive of and directly involved in CCN's efforts to help those in our local communities who are out of work, to become better networked and learn more about finding work in today's challenging job market. Anywhere up to a couple of dozen people attend the meetings, which feature excellent speakers and a discussion following. Three meetings will be held at Good Shepherd over the next four months, in January, March and April. For more information, contact Barbara Sloane (845-267-8583).

GOOD SHEPHERD ESL CLASSES

Good Shepherd's ESL (English as a Second Language) Classes started Monday, January 10th. Last semester was a wonderful success and enjoyed by both students and volunteer teachers. I would like to thank all those who contributed to our program in any capacity, whether it was teaching or financially. We are still looking for individuals who are interested in either teaching or contributing monetarily. We are hoping to purchase books for the students and volunteers with the money contributed to the ESL program. Checks can be made out to Good Shepherd Fund with a notation to "ESL Program" on the bottom. The knowledge of a foreign language is helpful, but not a necessity.

Our program takes place from Monday, January 10th through Monday, April 11th from 7:30pm - 9:00pm in Fellowship Hall. I look forward to seeing you there. If interested, please contact Joan Tinger at 845-267-8390.

HAPPY NEW YEAR PRAYER

May you get a clean bill of health from your dentist, your cardiologist, your gastroenterologist, your urologist, your proctologist, your podiatrist, your psychiatrist, your plumber and the I.R.S. May your hair, your teeth, your face lift, your abs and your stocks not fall, and may your blood pressure, your triglycerides, your cholesterol, your white count and your mortgage interest not rise. May what you see in the mirror delight you, and what others see in you delight them. May someone love you enough to forgive your faults, be blind to your blemishes, and tell the world about your virtues. May the telemarketers wait to make their sales calls until you finish dinner, may the commercials on TV not be louder than the program you have been watching, and may your checkbook and your budget balance and include generous amounts for charity. May you remember to say "I Love You" at least once a day to your spouse, your child, your parent, your siblings: but not to your secretary, your nurse, your masseuse, your hairdresser or your tennis instructor. And may we live in a world at peace and with the awareness of God's love in every sunset, every flower's unfolding petals, every baby's smile, every lover's kiss, and every wonderful, astonishing, miraculous beat of our heart.
