"WALK WITH JESUS"

Children's GOOD FRIDAY Service

Once again, we will be having our "Walk with Jesus" on Good Friday, April 6th, at 12:00 noon. This is an excellent way for children to experience the story of Jesus' last days. They, along with their families, are invited to walk and sing in the Palm Sunday procession, eat at the Last Supper, pray in the Garden of Gethsemane and be part of the crowd at the trial, at Calvary, and the tomb. Our youth will play the parts of Jesus, his disciples and those who participated in these events. Come, walk with Jesus, and bring a friend.

FROM THE PASTOR

Jason Kilar is a rapidly rising star, shining over the “flat world” in which we live. His journey is through the “galaxy” of online video service. A father of four and a lover of basketball, he left “Amazon” as one of their top executives and is now the highly entrepreneurial CEO of a company called “Hulu” (yet another name to learn).

This MBA Harvard graduate is not only smart and communicative, he has clout. “Hulu” encompasses 300 partners, has 1000 advertisers, and services 30 million monthly users. Mr. Kilar knows that galaxy through which we journey. He uses the word “journey” quite often. In fact, what caught my attention is how well he communicates and how many religious images he uses when he speaks. His goal is not to serve the investor but the user of his products, and there are lots of hours in use. He says that what people do most every day in the United States is sleep, work, and thirdly, spend four to five hours in front of some kind of video image, be it a TV screen, i-pod or i-phone. This translates into a 40 billion dollars a year “content creator” industry with investors who expect a return on their investment.

His mission starts with the consumer and his goal is to make his products as simple and delightful to use as possible. For example, Warren Buffet plays Solitaire online. That game brings delight to him, and he is willing to pay $13 a month for it. Mr. Kilar knows that peoples’ delight in life make them price-insensitive when buying. What matters most to achieving his goal is focus on the customer and the team culture of his company. At the same time, he says that the greatest threat to Hulu’s mission is anything that threatens Hulu’s team culture—and there are many.

Christians are on a journey not unlike that of Mr. Kilar’s, as strange as that may seem. As Christians, we are part of a “team”. The “culture” of the team is critical, and knows threats. Just take notice of how many congregations are struggling just to survive. While we are not called to be successful in our journey, we are called to be faithful, and our “team culture” is the greatest thing we have going for us in our journey as Christians who are part of a congregation. At the same time, we know full well the threats to this “team culture”. It is the “old Adam”, the self-centered ways that afflict us all, and a world that is indifferent to religions that do not change peoples’ lives in “delightful” ways that service others in need.

Without question, the vision for every Christian’s life and every Christian congregation has to be the death and the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who is our delight in life and in faith. Jesus is raised to change us for living his new life. This month we begin, once again, the great Fifty Days of celebrating the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. The only way we can know of this vision and the only way we can grow in this culture is to be consumed by the Word of God in the Scriptures and sacraments. As we consume these gifts, by hearing, being bathed, and eating and drinking at the Lord’s Table, we find that it is not we who consume, but we who are consumed in delight that leads to an ever-changing, challenging, and joyful life of sacrifice in God’s world.

On a personal note, I keep telling Brenda Ferguson that she should write a book (not that she would have the time) about changing culture. What made our youth talent show such a delight was not just the talent offered, excluding that of a pastor playing a guitar with broken strings and two front teeth made of pistachio shells, but the relationships evident among so many of our members involved in our ministry of music, clearly one of our entrepreneurial ministries that adds wonderfully to the lives of our members and wider community. We are seeing a culture change right before our eyes in a congregational mission that is changing peoples’ lives. This culture change is exhausting, and it is exhilarating, one and at the same time. It includes a great variety of life-changing ministries among us, not the least of which are our music ministries, our Creative Play ministry, and ESL, all being among the most public. Going public with our new life in the resurrection is an essential part of our faith culture.

Surely, we are not a community dedicated just to church programs. Programs do not save people, but rather, faith in Jesus, crucified and resurrected. This is our blood. This is our life in death. This is our strength in standing against bigotry of any kind, racism, poverty, bullying, ignorance, war, and exclusions of others born only out of fear. Jesus is the source of our joy in sharing the forgiveness of sins with others and thriving in our own forgiveness.

Jason Kilar’s world is far away from most of us, but there is so much to learn about how to effectively and faithfully be the people of God, called to serve and witness in a congregation today, by people like him. Mr. Kilar says it is an exciting time to be part of the content creator and distributor world in which “simple, delightful, intuitive and innovative” products are made and offered to change lives. For us, it is an exciting time to be part of the mission of the church, as our focus is singularly on a world in need and as our “team” is shaped singularly by the life-giving and life-changing Word that trumpets out the only song we have to sing: “Jesus Christ is risen, today. Alleluia”.

SPRING CHICKEN !!

As a sequel to our November Turkey Run, we are collecting FROZEN whole chickens and bags of groceries to be distributed for Easter by the food pantry at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in the Bronx (Pastor Larry McFarland's church).

Please bring your donations to the church on Saturday, March 31st, between 7 a.m. and 9 a.m. Call Jayne Knarich at 845-358-7632 or email greenwalk2@aol.com to arrange for other pick-up time during the week of March 25th. It is most helpful if you can sign up on the display board in the Education Building or in the coat room off the back of the sanctuary, so the food pantry has some idea of how many chickens to expect.

WELCA NEWS

The ladies of WELCA met the first Tuesday of March and had a very interesting meeting. We donated a sheep to God's Global Barnyard; we also gave a donation to "Susan's Place," which we found, through the NY WELCA synod paper is a Bronx shelter for medically frail and mentally ill homeless women. It is a 200-bed transitional residence with medical and dental clinics on site. It provides a safe and supportive environment until residents can be placed in permanent housing.

Our program included telling each other of things that happened that were joyous to us in the past year, in the past week and today. It was interesting to hear all the responses and comments.

Our next meeting, in April, will be an auction. We invite any and all to come and bring new items, either wrapped or unwrapped, to be bid on. This will be a major fundraiser for us. Refreshments will be served.

You are cordially invited to join us for the next meeting. Bring yourselves, an open heart, an open mind, and an appetite! For more information or to RSVP, please contact Rich Bowman at rpbp@yahoo.com or (845) 627-6967, or contact Lone Mensing in the church office at parishworker@gspr.org.

WE'RE FILLING THE BARNYARD WITH COWS, SHEEP, PIGS, GOATS, DUCKS AND CHICKS...AND THIS YEAR—ALPACAS!

We're in the middle of our drive to raise money for God's Global Barnyard. Last year, we raised over $2,600 that went to purchase animals for families throughout the world, and made an enormous difference in their lives. Not only do they provide food to eat but they provide fertilizer to grow crops, and offspring to sell on the market. Along with the animals, ELCA provides training and marketing skills. Some of the groups in the church have already donated an animal, the Upper Room is collecting money that their teachers are matching, and the Sunday School had a Hop-a-Thon on March 25th. So join the fun!

You can give in either of two ways:

- There are envelopes in the back of the church for contributions.
- You can purchase an animal as a gift to someone, for a birthday, anniversary or any special occasion. There are special cards in the back of the church that you can give the individual.

CREATIVE PLAY NEWS

Easter celebrations started our month. The children all met in the Church to hear a story about getting ready for Easter and the promise of new life. The children had some "egg-citing" fun in their classrooms. They dyed eggs, found a hidden treat filled Easter egg, and celebrated with a bunny cake, baked by parent volunteers. What a great way to start our Spring break.

When the children returned from break, they discovered caterpillars in their classrooms. They were able to watch the cycle the caterpillars go through before they turn into butterflies in May. A visit from Outragehiss Pets, was so much fun. The children met some furry friends and one very large friendly snake!

We have begun registration for some of our other programs: Our Time for Twos classes (formerly known as Mommy & Me) has begun registration. If you have a child who will be 2 years old by December 1st, please call the office to sign your child up for Fall classes.

If you are looking for some summer fun for your preschool aged to 6-year-old child, Creative Play Summer Camp is a fun way to spend your summer mornings. Summer Camp applications are available in the office. Camp runs July 9th through August 3rd. You can attend as many weeks as you wish. If you have any questions, please call the office at (845)735-2737.

Kindergarten Enrichment applications are also available for children in the Pearl River School District who will be attending Kindergarten in the fall. We have morning and afternoon classes available; please call the school to find out more about this exciting program.

We also have limited openings in our 3-year-old classes; please call to make an appointment to see our school (845-735-2737).

STEWARDSHIP

"In all my years of service to my Lord, I have discovered a truth that has never failed and has never been compromised. That truth is that it is beyond the realm of possibilities that one has the ability to out give God. Even if I give the whole of my worth to Him, He will find a way to give back to me much more than I gave."

ESL HAS ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL YEAR

ESL is coming to a close for this year. We had a successful year thus far 22 ESL students signed up. Our last official class for this year is April 16th. We will not have class on Monday, April 6th since many people will be away for Spring Break and Easter recess.

Thank you all for your coat and scarf donations, all of which were put to good use by many of our students and was very much appreciated by them. Having the books for the students this year was so much better for all involved and thank all of you for your donations to that cause also.

An extra Big Thank You to each and every tutor who gave up their Monday evenings, week after week, to help those students who were enrolled in the program. This dedication by all of you, is what makes this program work.

Thank you,
Joan Duonnolo
