SEPTEMBER 2021

SERVING ROCKLAND COUNTY, NY
& NORTHERN BERGEN COUNTY, NJ

The butterfly measures in not months, but moments.
Yet, there is time enough.

This year, my daily desk calendar is a Zen calendar. It's supposed to have a new Buddhist Zen quote every day. I thought when I got it that maybe with what we were obviously going to be facing this year, a little Zen might be a good thing. Funny though, the other day the quote was from John 3:8, "The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." And more often than I thought it would happen, the scholar, philosopher, or theologian quoted, is a Christian. Go figure. Maybe Christianity is more Zen than we tend to imagine.

Anyway, the quote above is from the desk calendar. I've been thinking about it a lot because when I start thinking about where we are, all there is to do, and how we're all doing, it's so easy to get utterly overwhelmed by it all. The quote is reminding me to live and focus on the moment. Because the moment is enough. The rest will be given in time—or not, because it is simply not meant to be.

It reminds me of a Latin phrase often attributed to Saint Augustine, Solvitur ambulando, which means "It will be solved by walking." A step at a time. A moment at a time our lives unfold. And all the worrying in the world doesn't make that happen any differently.

I feel like there is so much anxiety right now. As the newest strain of COVID sweeps through the population. As hurricanes hit with ferocious intensity. As we watch with horror as Afghanistan, Haiti, and other places are going through so much pain, suffering, violence, and injustice. As so many deal with unexpected turns in health, or other life transitions, and traumas. As we wonder anxiously about Good Shepherd, and if we can be the vibrant community we once were, especially as people move away, and so many don't seem to want to come back to worship, for myriad reasons. It's easy to get swept up in uncertainty and anxiety.

So how do we anchor ourselves so that we don't get swept away? I think, honestly, it is to measure as a butterfly. To take a moment and notice. To live in the moment. To move a step at a time. Because solvitur ambulando. It will only be solved by wandering along the winding way that refuses straight lines and clear paths. And because we know that Jesus is the way, and not just the end. God walks with us in all of our meandering and stumbling, blessing the moment as the point in which time and eternity meet.

Thinking of paths and uncertainty and living in the moment, thanks to the work of a lot of great leaders in this congregation, we have a full calendar year planned ahead of us. These events are not assigned to committees, and are going to need people to step up and help out to make them happen. Though the year is "planned," it's going to be very much a step at a time. I assure you, that it will be tiring if those steps are taken only by a few of us for the whole year. So, I encourage you to think about taking a step. A step to attend. A step to volunteer for one thing. A step to live in the moment with us at Good Shepherd.

If we do that, I think we will be just fine. Sustained by God's presence, surrounded in each other's care, and walking in faith, together.

Peace to you!

Pastor Lena

ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Thursdays, 7pm, Zoom

Bible Study returns! Pastor Lena will be leading us through a look at the Book of Hebrews. To quote NT Wright, "The letter of Hebrews is one of the most bracing and challenging writings in the New Testament. People often find it a bit difficult, because it uses ideas that are strange to us. But, like meeting a new friend, we will find as we get to know it that it is full of interest and delight, with a powerful message that comes home to today's and tomorrow's church as much as it did to yesterday's." So come and join us! No experience necessary and feel free to invite a friend!

Creative Play News

Summer is winding down and the new school year is revving up!

Creative Play ran a summer camp for 4 weeks in July, and serviced 70 children. Teachers, counselors, and students all laughed in the sunshine, as we celebrated the Olympics, had fun in the water, experienced games with Disney characters, and learned about the science of gardening. The camp was a success, as registration had filled up within 1.5 hours. Our campers left asking to stay for another week!

Creative Play will start the school year on September 13, navigating on another re-imagined path. We are well-prepared for the changes that may be mandated, and happy to be able to open our doors, once again, to welcome some of the youngest members of our community. Although uncertainty remains with the threat of COVID-19, we are certain that we will provide a successful and happy school year.

I am so appreciative for our staff who continue to smile through it all! I wish everyone well, as they say so long to summer, and hope everyone is able to hold onto their sunny dispositions, as the days shorten.

Be well, be safe and be happy,

Renee Bucci, Creative Play Director
renee@gspr.org

LABOR DAY

THE CHURCH OFFICE AND CREATIVE
PLAY OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED ON MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, IN OBSERVANCE OF LABOR DAY!

MEET OUR STAFF!

Renee Bucci, Director Renee is entering her 18th year working at Creative Play, but as a parent, has been involved with the program for 24 years, as her three children were all educated through the program. Renee has taught Mommy & Me classes, toddler classes, and 3-year-old children, before stepping in as Assistant Director in 2013. Renee has a passion for the Creative Play program, and looks forward to continuing her service to the community as director, this year. Renee also runs the Summer Camp Program.

Angela Carle, Assistant Director Angela first joined Creative Play as a parent and began doing “work-for-pay” to help families that could not fulfill their responsibilities in the classroom. In 2011, Angela became an aide in our Kindergarten Enrichment class before transitioning into the UPK classroom as an aide. In 2018, Angela joined us in the office as an office admin, and is now taking on the challenging role as Assistant Director, this year. We are happy to have her help lead our program. Angela has a beautifully relaxed manner that puts a smile on everyone’s face!

Kim Arcidiacono, Office Assistant Kim has been an active participant on Creative Play’s Executive Board leading programs, as well as an energetic helping parent in the classrooms. In 2020, Kim joined our team in the Creative Play office as an Assistant Office Administrator. She will be extending her hours with us this coming year, as her role grows. Kim is a constant support for both the school as well as the church; she connects the two programs beautifully.

Donna McDonagh, 4-year-old teacher Donna has been a part of Creative Play for over 20 years! She has taught in almost every classroom, from 2-year-olds to 4-year-olds, as well as spending some time working as an office assistant. Donna is well-versed in all things Creative Play. You know you are passing Donnas’ class when you hear laughter; she has as much fun as the children! Donnas’ dedication to Creative Play has rewarded many families that experienced time in her class.

Kristen Hanifin, 4-year-old teacher Kristen joined the Creative Play staff in 2017. This will be her fifth year teaching at Creative Play! Kristen has an ease about her that makes the staff, parents, and children feel comfortable. Kristen creates a classroom so welcoming, that we have a hard time getting the parents to separate!

Bridget Quinn, 4-year-old teacher's aide & Creative Creations Teacher Bridget has a passion for early education and is always ready to lend a helping hand! Bridget began as a “work-for-pay” parent, and has worked as an aide since 2016. She has also been a substitute teacher for multiple classes. Bridget developed curriculum and led our Creative Creation classes, which we hope to run again this year.

Laura McEvoy, 3-year-old teacher Laura is as excited as we are to join our team this year and share time with your children! Laura comes to us with teaching experience in a pre-school setting and a great amount of mom experience, too! Laura is the mother of four children who keep her busy, grounded and loved! Laura will bring all her knowledge, care and support that she shares at home to your children. Laura decided to join us during the challenging times last year as an aide in a 5 day 4 year old class, this expresses how much she truly cares and we thank her!

Maureen Fitzgerald, 3-year-old teacher Maureen started off at Creative Play as a parent, in a Mommy & Me Class, and like so many of us, when her children graduated the program she was not ready to leave! Maureen began working in the classrooms on an as-needed basis, and in 2014, became a 3-year-old teacher. Maureen's loving and sweet manner is a benefit to all the children that have come through her classroom.

Donna Scanlon, 3-year-old teacher & teacher's aide Donna has a laugh that is contagious and welcomed each day. Donna has been at Creative Play for years, taking on the role as a Toddler teacher in 2017, and teaching 3-year-old classes in 2019. She has created a warm and loving atmosphere to welcome our littlest members. Donna is imaginative and creative in what she brings to a classroom!

Brooque Moolick, 3-year-old teacher Brooque is another individual that refused to graduate from Creative Play; she barely let her 3 children leave the program! Brooque joined our staff in 2018, as a Toddler teacher, and the following year became a three-year-old teacher. As we all know, patience and understanding is much needed in a 3-year-old classroom, and with Brooque leading the way, the children receive just that! She is amazing at following their wants and needs. and is known for "changing it up!" If you need a laugh, take a peek into her classroom and you are sure to smile!

Jennifer Farrell, Toddler teacher Jen's oldest daughter was graduating Creative Play and we quickly asked for her to join our program, as her youngest started in our 3-year-old classes. She has a background in teaching early education, as well as a fabulous sense of humor that is needed to run a successful classroom! In 2019, Jen began teaching the 1-day-a-week toddlers. We are excited for the her return, knowing how lucky the children will be to enjoy all the experience Mrs. Farrell brings to her students.

Alice Tom, Toddler teacher Alice joined Creative Play in 2020. While so many were leaving schools, Alice came charging into her classroom, greeting our youngest members with great care, compassion, and lots of energy! You certainly need a good sense of humor while teaching 2-year-olds, and Alice's laughter can be heard from down the hallway! She has 5 children who enjoyed the Creative Play experience, so we feel as though Alice has been a staff member for the past 14 years.

Kristen Scott, UPK Teacher Creative Play is very fortunate to have had Kristen join our program, in 2015. With three little ones at home, Kristen is wonderful in understanding families' needs. Kristen teaches both morning and afternoon UPK classes, so it is a full day of smiles for our four-year-olds! When she opens her classroom door, you will always hear "we had a great day!" Kristen also teaches our Summer Camp program.

Karen Sack, UPK Teacher Karen will begin her fifth year teaching a morning UPK class at Creative Play, but has many years of UPK experience, prior to joining us. With Karen on our team, she shares all of her knowledge with the children and their families, and with the staff as well. Karen finds a balance of leadership and child-like wonder in her classroom that makes us all smile!

Cathryn Rosas, UPK Aide Cathy has been working for Creative play, as an aide, since 2008. Prior to taking on the aide position, she was a helping parent in the classroom. Cathy has been involved with our UPK classes from the inception. She helps to keep a classroom organized, while bringing a fun, enthusiastic approach to learning with her! Cathy also assists in running our summer camp program.

Samantha Delgardo, Teacher's Aide Samantha's children came through Creative Play's program, and we watched how this mom caringly gravitated to all the children in the classroom. Samantha began doing "work-for-pay" in other classrooms and enjoyed the experience so much, she decided to become a part of our staff this year! Samantha happily engages with the children that may be having a more difficult time in and outside the classroom; she is always supportive with an extra hug, tissue, kind word, and laugh!

Annmarie Moffatt, Teacher's Aide Annmarie joined the Creative Play staff in 2019, with a background in business and lots of mommy experience. She has been an asset to the children, her lead teacher, and to the administration of our program. Annmarie has a gentle way of navigating the children with their tasks by sparking their interests in the most engaging manner.

Dawn Ferrara, Teacher's Aide Dawn has remained committed to Creative Play, long after her two children graduated the program. She has helped numerous families with their work responsibilities. Dawn has shown an ease in multi-tasking and adapting to different teaching styles. After being a long-term substitute aide in our UPK class amount many different roles, we welcome Dawn as a staff member this year!

“Children are born musicians, dancers, artists, and storytellers, and the opportunities for healthy development are endless. We just have to provide the canvas, the paper, the paints, the materials and the welcoming environment, setting the stage for creativity, learning and fun.”

Dear Good Shepherd Families,

Thank you so much to Alison Meyer, Inese Cederbaums, and David Rothenberg for sharing their music with us in recent services. We are so grateful for their time and talents!
